

Comparatives and Superlatives

Instructions:

Choose the right form of the adjective to finish the sentence. Answers are on page 2. Remember that “good” and “bad” are irregular.

1. I gave you the (fine) clothes and the (expensive) robes, as well as sandals made from the (good) leather. (Ezekiel 16:10)
2. Sensible words are (good) than gold. (Proverbs 20:15)
3. Finding it would make you (happy) than having the 99 that never wandered off. (Matthew 18:13)
4. The (great) way to show love for friends is to die for them. (John 15:13)
5. Teacher, what is the (important) commandment in the Law? (Matthew 22:36)
6. I was the (bad) sinner of all! (1 Timothy 1:15)
7. Broken promises are (bad) than rain clouds that don't bring rain. (Proverbs 25:14)
8. No one ever born on this earth is (great) than John. (Luke 7:28)
9. They are (powerful) than you are. (Deuteronomy 9:1)
10. The grapes your tribe doesn't even bother to pick are (good) than the (good) grapes my family can grow. (Judges 8:2)

Answers:

1. I gave you the finest clothes and the most expensive robes, as well as sandals made from the best leather. (Ezekiel 16:10)
2. Sensible words are better than gold. (John 7:2)
3. Finding it would make you happier than having the 99 that never wandered off. (Matthew 18:13)
4. The greatest way to show love for friends is to die for them. (John 15:13)
5. Teacher, what is the most important commandment in the Law? (Matthew 22:36)
6. I was the worst sinner of all! (1 Timothy 1:15)
7. Broken promises are worse than rain clouds that don't bring rain. (Proverbs 25:14)
8. No one ever born on this earth is greater than John. (Luke 7:28)
9. They are more powerful than you are. (Deuteronomy 9:1)
10. The grapes your tribe doesn't even bother to pick are better than the best grapes my family can grow. (Judges 8:2)