

Make or Do?

When you make, you create something.

When you do, you perform an activity or a task.

Instructions:

Write make or do in the blanks to finish these sentences and Bible verses. Remember that we need an “s” on the end of make and an “es” on the end of do when the subject is he, she, or it.

Make	Do
I make	I do
you (one person) make	you (one person) do
he makes, she makes, it makes	he does, she does, it does
we make	we do
you (more than one person) make	you (more than one person) do
they make	they do
